DISCUSSION

GIS Day has been celebrated worldwide since 1999 in an annual salute to geospatial technology and its power to transform and better our lives. Locally, it serves to bring government and the citizens of this county together to collaborate and learn about how GIS is used in this region and the important business decisions that it supports such as public safety and emergency response, community planning, and asset management. The GIS community fosters relationships and exchanges ideas through the gathering of GIS professionals, government staff, students, and the public at the GIS Day event. This year the event will be held in the Community Room at the City/County library, 995 Palm Street in San Luis Obispo, from 11AM through 2:30PM on November 14th, 2012. The event is free to the public.
