

The contract with EMC Corporation for professional services and software to modernize the County's property tax system is on file and can be viewed at the Clerk of the Board of Supervisor's office.