Attachment to Application for Appointment from Kathryn J. Veder

Item A

I am a retired school administrator. I currently work part time for Brandman University, a part of Chapman University, as a site supervisor. I have been active in the Nipomo and Santa Maria communities as a volunteer. I am also a CTA trained negotiator and have facilitated negotiations, organizational structuring, and executive board annual goal setting. I am a licensed Speech Pathologist and credentialed teacher. I have experience working with medical teams, social services, probation, county health, mental health, and various county organizations.

Item B

I am currently a member of Dana Adobe Nipomo Amigos, Friends of Nipomo Library, Nipomo Newcomers, Blacklake Women's Half Rounders Golf Club, Red Hatter's, and Gyros. In the past I was a member and officer of Nipomo Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, Association of California School Administrators, California Teachers Association, Phi Delta Kappa, California Speech and Hearing Association, Association of Mexican American Educators, American Association of University Women, and Santa Maria Children's Library.

Item C

I am interested in serving on the Commission on the Status of Women because I feel it is important to support the efforts of women in our society as businesswomen, mothers, educators, service providers, and active community members. I am new to this commission, but am interested in finding ways that I can help.
