DISCUSSION

In 1998, California voters passed Proposition 10, adding a 50 cents-per-pack tax on cigarettes to support programs for expectant parents and children ages 0 to 5. The Children and Families Commission (formerly First 5 San Luis Obispo County) was created by ordinance as an independent public entity and is a political subdivision of the State of California. Health & Safety Code § 130140.1(a)(1). The Children and Families Commission distributes approximately $1.4 million a year in Proposition 10 revenues to programs and services that meet local needs.

The appointment of the San Luis Obispo County Superintendent of Schools, County Office of Education is in accordance with the Children and Families Commission's bylaws. Appointments are made for a period of four years.
