Please explain why you would like to serve in this capacity

I am passionate about advancing the needs of women. I have personally seen the benefits of education, support, and empowerment so women can break through societal and self-imposed barriers. I have been volunteering with the Commission since August 2015; I'm impressed with the current active Commissioners love of their role. I believe strongly in this Commission's desire to continue to collect accurate and useful data regarding the needs of women.
