DISCUSSION

Each year, the County has joined the nation in recognizing Crime Victims' Rights Week during the month of April to help raise awareness about victims of crime and to affirm the progress made in victims' rights as well as the challenges that remain. This year's theme – "Serving Victims. Building Trust. Restoring Hope."- provides an opportunity to recommit ourselves by engaging community leaders and organizations to support crime victims and empowering them throughout the healing process as they become survivors.

The State commemorates the entire month of April to help expand the focus on this important issue and its essential role in bringing true justice to our communities. Annually, the District Attorney's Victim/Witness Assistance Center is recognized by the County Board of Supervisor's as the County agency designated to provide comprehensive crime victim and witness services to all types of crime victims. The District Attorney's Office requests that the Board join the state in approving a resolution proclaiming April 2016 as "San Luis Obispo County Crime Victims' Rights Month."

OTHER AGENCY INVOLVEMENT/IMPACT

The District Attorney's Victim/Witness Assistance Division partners on an ongoing basis with numerous other governmental agencies such as the Department of Social Services, the Sheriff's Office, the Probation Department, and various non-profit agencies to inform crime victims of their rights and to provide a host of crisis and support services designed to reduce the trauma of victimization. Through these partnerships, crime victims and their families are more effectively and efficiently served, and the County's goals of a safe and well-governed community are promoted.

FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS

None.

RESULTS

The public recognition of crime victims' rights helps raise awareness among local leaders, policy makers and the community about the importance and value of crime victims' rights and services to the delivery of justice to our citizens and contributes to the County's goals of safety and good governance.
