COUNTY PARKS AND RECREATION COMMISSION AGENDA ITEM TRANSMITTAL

TO: Parks and Recreation Commission

FROM: Parks and Recreation / Nick Franco/781-5204

SUBJECT: Discussion of El Chorro Regional Park and Dairy Creek Golf Course

DATE: 10/27/2016

Recommendations: It is recommended that the Commission discuss the future of El Chorro Regional Park in light of the limited water availability for Dairy Creek Golf Course.

Discussion:

The Board of Supervisors met on October 4, 2016 to discuss and provide direction regarding the future of El Chorro Regional Park. This is primarily prompted by the reduced water availability for Dairy Creek Golf Course. Also discussed was a zip line proposal by the Friends of the SLO Botanical Garden. The Board of Supervisors directed staff to develop a master plan for El Chorro Regional Park and return to the Board.

Parks and Recreation staff will have a public workshop on October 25, 2016 to discuss and answer questions about the water issues at Dairy Creek Golf Course.

This item is for the purpose of discussing the issues raised by these meetings to inform the best process moving forward.

Other Agency Involvement:

Public Works and Administration have been involved in these discussions.
