Comments or questions (8,192 characters max):	I believe a vote is coming on Tues. regarding animal control. I feel one attack is enough for the dog owners to be cited, and they need to be responsible for any and all vet and medical expenses. We just read the article in the paper this morning and just yesterday, a dog attacked my husband while he was doing his daily walk. It was a large german shepherd. He was able to protect himself but now I am afraid to walk. I am semi-disabled and cannot run. What am I supposed to do to protect myself? This is upsurd that I can't walk in my own neighborhood. Quit protecting animal rights, and do something to make the dog owners responsible!!!! We don't need a wimpy law, we need to realize this is a crime, and treat it as such! Please use wisdom when you decide this. If it was your daughter or son who is attacked, or their dog, what would you want done to protect them? Thank you, Les and Linda Blevins, Nipomo, CA
